Agreements & Releases

- All the information I have provided is true to the best of my knowledge.
- I agree to covenant with at least one person to pray daily for me during my time of ministry preparation and while traveling on this ministry trip.
- I have read Oakwood Church’s Statement of Faith and agree to respect it in all regards. I will not propagate convictions contrary to those in the statement during my time with Mission Hope/Oakwood.
- I agree to conduct myself in accordance with the Statement of Faith, and to honor Christ Jesus to the best of my ability during this mission.
- I am willing to faithfully carry out my assignment and to cooperate in every way possible.
- My behavior and attitudes will be in submission to the authority(s) God has placed over me in the form of the mission, church or missionary under which I serve.
- I will accept and respect the decisions and authority of the team leaders and abide by the rules of the ministry.
- Candidates not sent directly by Mission Hope/Oakwood Church must serve with a recognized missions agency or formal organization with both financial and spiritual accountability.
- Candidates must be able to raise the support for their expenses from designated gifts or personal resources.
- I will not hold Mission Hope/Oakwood Church liable for injury, disease, or delay of return while on this ministry trip.
- I agree to participate following this trip in a summary report to Mission Hope/Oakwood Church within 60 days of my return.

Acceptance of your application to travel on the ministry trip is in the sole discretion of Mission Hope/Oakwood Church and partnering mission organizations; no explanation is required.

I have read and understand the previously mentioned statements and release Mission Hope/Oakwood Church of any liability associated with this short-term ministry trip:
